DEAR PARISHIONERS:

Next Sunday, May 20th, is the Feast of Pentecost, the great festival of God the Holy Ghost, Who is the Lord and Giver of Life. Our Masses at S. Clement's will be offered in Thanksgiving for the Victory of the Allied Armies in Europe, and with the earnest prayer that they may soon achieve a similar victory in the Pacific.

Those whom we love, now absent from us with the Armed Forces of our Country, are always in our thoughts and prayers. We know that wherever they are they are present with our Lord and God through the power of the Holy Spirit, but that chiefly in the Holy Mass are we all present with each other through the unifying grace of Him whose festival we are about to keep. As the war is brought to a victorious close, we know our Service Men and Women will soon be returning to us. We must have a Church welcome waiting for them as well as a welcome in our homes. Let us prepare for their coming by prayer and sacrament, and offer our Eucharist for God's many blessings on Whitsunday.

The Offering next Sunday is our annual collection for the Missionary Work of the Church. If World Peace is to be established on Christian lines and maintained there, the greatest factor in that achievement will be the Holy Spirit and the Christian Church. The Military will have won the war; Christians must not lose the peace.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with you all evermore.

Affectionately your Friend and Pastor,

Franklin Jones -

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

Whitsunday, which we celebrate next Sunday, is an annual reminder of the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit on the Feast of Pentecost, and is the Birthday of the Catholic Church. It reminds you of the many occasions, when through the Sacraments of the Church, you have received the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit. It reminds you too of the poor way in which you have used, and even mis-used His Pentecostal Gifts in the past. It should move you to resolve that you will co-operate more fully with Him in the future and use His graces more earnestly. Between this regret for the past and this resolve for the future stands the present. Prepare yourselves thoroughly for next Sunday's Feast. Let every one of you make a worthy Confession. Then come, each one of you, to Holy Communion. So that cleansed from your past failures and fortified with renewed gifts of the Holy Spirit you can with confidence press on to bring about in the Church and in the World a new manifestation of God in Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

It is our custom in S. Clement's to make a Special Offering on the Feast of Pentecost for the Missionary Work of the Church. It will be specified definitely for Catholic Missions, and will apply on our Parish Missionary Quota to the Diocese. Make your Offering an expression of your gratefulness to God for His powerful gift of the Holy Spirit, and for the privileges you enjoy in this Parish.

Affectionately your Friend and Pastor,

Ascension-Tide

DEAR FRIENDS:—

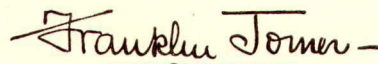

Whitsunday is the Anniversary of the Holy Spirit's descent upon the waiting Church. The Life with which that early group was vitalized still endures, and will continue "unto the consummation of the ages." The Holy Spirit was sent, not to atone for the Lord's absence, but to re-create His Presence, in fulfillment of His promise, "Lo I am with you always." The Life and the Power of the Heavenly Gift is unchanged, and the group upon which He was first bestowed has grown into a world-wide fellowship. Yet scattered over the face of the earth are many souls upon whom this Light has not shown and this Life has not been impressed. Our Blessed Lord's command is to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He has fulfilled His promise; are you fulfilling His command?

On the Feast of Pentecost you cannot escape the remembrance of this command. As you worship in your lovely Church, with the full privileges of the Sacraments and all the historic adjuncts of Catholic devotion, will you not be challenged with the knowledge that many souls still grope "in darkness and in the shadow of death?" The little group in Jerusalem on the First Pentecost became "missionaries," were fired with the Divine Spirit, and in response to the boldness of their witness "three thousand souls were added to the Church that same day."

As Catholics and direct descendents of those first Christians you must be vitally concerned with the conversion of all men to the Catholic Religion and in the Reunion of Christendom. It has long been the custom in S. Clement's Church to give the money contributions on Whitsunday to the Missionary Work of the Church. Few of you are called to be "preachers;" few of you are called to be "missionaries;" but all of you are called to give of your substance that others may be trained to carry the Faith "into all the world."

May God the Holy Spirit deepen in every Christian heart the sense of responsibility for the "unconverted," and open every purse to give liberally for the advancement of the Kingdom.

Affectionately in the Holy Spirit,

Pastor.

DEAR FRIENDS:—

When our first parents succumbed to temptation, and sin separated them from God, God determined to redeem man from this sinful state and bring him back to union with Himself. At this moment the plan of the Church was present in the mind of God; it would be the continuation, the extension of the Incarnation through which this redemption was to be brought about. Our Lord Jesus Christ in His Incarnate Life fulfilled God's purpose, and within the range of time and space accomplished the work His Father gave Him to do. On the Feast of Pentecost, God the Holy Ghost filled the waiting Apostles with power from on high, and the Church became a living reality, full of grace and truth, to bring about through its ministry that which our Lord by His life and death had established for sinful men.

So while the Church was in the mind of God from the beginning, it did not become a reality until our Incarnate Lord had returned to His Father's side and the Holy Ghost had fallen upon the Apostles at Pentecost. This gift of God the Holy Ghost we commemorate on Whitsunday. Next Sunday, May 13th, is the anniversary of the momentous occasion, and we pray that we and all Christian people may be so spiritually prepared for this Feast, that through our Pentecost Communion there may be throughout the Church a more apparent demonstration of the power of God than there has been in the past.

God's gifts do not change; His power does not change; but we change. When we change for the worse, God's power in the world is dimmed. When we change for the better, God's power is evident. What the world needs today above everything else is an unmistakable demonstration of God's power; and you and I, each one of us, can make our contribution to that end.

The collection on Pentecost is the Parish's annual gift to the Missionary Work of the Church. By your alms, as well as by your prayers and your penitence, you can help in bringing about another Pentecost of spiritual power and force in the world of today.

Affectionately in the Spirit of Pentecost,

MY DEAR CHILDREN:—

Whitsunday is one of the great Feasts of the Church Year. It is the day when the promised Holy Spirit fell upon the waiting Apostles and the Mystical Body of Christ was born. We are members of that Body, and by the agency of the same Holy Spirit the life of God flows into our souls through the Sacramental channels of the Church. It is a day that deserves our most devout observance; a Communion most carefully prepared for; an act of worship that flows from an appreciative heart. Unfortunately this year it falls on June first, which brings it in close proximity to our National Memorial Day and includes it in a long holiday week-end. But wherever you are, the obligation to keep Pentecost cannot be evaded. When you plan your holiday week-end, plan it for a place where you can assist at Mass, and it is most desirable that it be a place where you can receive Holy Communion. Make your spiritual preparation before you go away. Pentecost is the culmination of the Easter and Ascension Blessings. The Holy Spirit came, not to atone for our Lord's absence, but to create His Presence, and in a wonderful way to fulfill His promise, "Lo, I am with you alway!"

The following Sunday is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, and the Thursday after that is the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 12th. The Annual Mass and Meeting of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be held in S. Clement's Church on Corpus Christi Day. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11:30, sung in the presence of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Reginald Mallett, Bishop of Northern Indiana and Superior General of the Confraternity. Luncheon will be served in the Parish House, and in the early afternoon the annual meeting of the Confraternity will be held in S. John's Chapel. We hope this day will be the occasion for enrolling many new members in our Parish Ward of the C.B.S. The following Thursday, June 19th, is the date for the Garden Party and Summer Fete.

With the earnest prayer that all of us, Priests and people, may bear a more faithful and unswerving witness to the Catholic heritage of the Church by showing forth in our lives what we profess with our lips, and wishing you all a happy and recreative summer, I am

Your devoted spiritual Father,
